

Displays of Character: Men Reimagining Manhood

“From this day forward, I promise to be part of the solution in ending violence against women and all gender-based violence.”

Jane Doe Inc. presents Displays of Character: Men Reimagining Manhood, a museum quality display designed to highlight the men who have committed to using their voice to advocate for a solution to the human rights issues of sexual assault, rape, domestic violence, and other forms of abuse.

The men in this display are White Ribbon Day Ambassadors representing thousands of men and boys across the Commonwealth who have taken the Massachusetts White Ribbon Day Pledge. They are taking bold steps to find answers to these questions: What kind of role model do I want to be? How do my behaviors and attitudes reflect my values? Why should I care about kindness and compassion, respecting differences, promoting equity and valuing respect?

Through their actions and words, these WRD Ambassadors are reimagining concepts of manhood and masculinity to create far-reaching and long-lasting solutions for safety and justice.
