BROCKTON - Male members of Plymouth County District Attorney Tim Cruz's office are wearing white ribbons today as part of a campaign to end violence against women.

The first Thursday in March is White Ribbon Day in Massachusetts, an initiative that asks men to take part in ending violence against women.

Cruz and several men in his office gathered for a photo at the Brockton District Court Thursday morning to take the pledge: "From this day forward, I promise to be part of the solution in ending violence against women and all gender based violence."
